The Guidance and Counselling Services Office of Aklan State University conducted a Labor Employment for Graduating Students and Job Fair 2022 with the theme: Empowering ASU K-12 Pioneers towards 21st – Century Opportunities at ASU Amphitheatre on Wednesday, June 29, 2022

This service designed to assist students in providing vocational and occupational opportunities within the university and in the labor market. It is through this service where students' awareness and competency in matching their skills with the best available employment are developed. This will essentially enhance their career and employment viability here and abroad.

Mr. Marsh Bernabe, PSO III, Aklan Peso Manager, introduced his topic about PESO services. He was followed by the second speaker, Methuselah Norma Janabon, with her topic: During and Post-Employment Coaching. The talk ended with the last speaker, Dearose Quimpo, introducing her topic: Job Opportunity in Sunlife.
